Sandra Rigazio grew up in the rectory as a preacher's kid in Medford, Mass. After graduating from Westfield State College, she and her late husband Joe pursued their mutual goal of dairy farming before settling down in New Hampshire with more routine careers. Sandy has worked as a mortgage officer, an office manager for an insurance agent. Recently she faced a season of disability which left her unable to work.

Marlene Weitemeyer has worked at New Creation for 18 years as a medical assistant and event coordinator. She will talk about her experience with depression as early as age 10, and throughout her adult life.

Upcoming Events

The Ministry Of Christian Healing Saturday, October 14 from 9 am - 4 pm

This conference is for two groups of people. The first track is for those new to the ministry of Christian healing, whether done individually or as part of a church-based ministry team. The second track is for those already serving on a healing team. Cost of this workshop is $35.

Lazarus Program - Thursday evening, October 26 to Sunday, October 29 at noon - The Lazarus Program will address inner healing. The weekend will include intensive prayer ministry and extensive education regarding the healing of inner wounds. This program is particularly helpful for people who are struggling with emotional or spiritual issues. Must apply in advance.

Finishing Life's Journey Well

Saturday, November 11 from 9 am - 4 pm

This workshop is designed to assist individuals in their own thinking and planning or for the special loved one who will assist the person in planning, as well as for Church leaders (pastors, deacons) as they guide church members and their families through end-of-life issues. Cost of this workshop is $35.
