“Lazarus, Come forth!”

Jesus called out those words in front of the tomb where His friend had been laid to rest, four days before Our Lord arrived. Yet, His voice not only resonated in the air, it penetrated even death itself, and the grace of God brought healing and life where there had only been the silence of the tomb.

Lazarus stepped forth, but even though he had been restored to life, he was bound by his grave clothes. He could not be truly free until he had shed their bondage, and so Jesus ordered them stripped away. Only then could Lazarus step forward in confidence to meet his friend, Jesus.

Our Lord has redeemed us, but we still can be bound by things in our past that block our freedom. However, we know Jesus has not stopped healing people and He can bring life, freedom and wholeness - a resurrection into His own life - to those who believe and trust in Him.

That is what The Lazarus Program offers you, if you are willing to invest a bit of time and be open about your past to those who want to help you see Jesus perform His healing miracles in your life.

The Lazarus Program is not an end in itself. It offers the possibility of removing some of the barriers in our lives that hinder the new life of Christ from coming forth in and through us. By letting God take away the things in our past that keep us from enjoying the fullness of the life Jesus offers us, we can live that life more fully and abundantly, just as He promised, in our own families, churches and occupations.

Before arriving for the weekend, you will be asked to fill out a self-assessment profile that asks about problem areas in your life and the lives of your forebears, spouse, siblings and descendants. Prayerful, Spirit-guided honesty is essential in preparing this form so the Lazarus team can pray effectively for you. This self-assessment form will be kept confidential.

The Program (Thursday evening to Sunday at noon) is kept very low-key, with a spirit of acceptance of God’s love and a contemplative mood as its primary themes.

It begins with an evening meal with the team. After a period of teaching, worship and silent prayer, you will rest for the night. The next day features a series of Bible-based talks on healing and self-discovery, with ample time offered for prayer and silent contemplation. The third day you will be bathed in prayer from your prayer team, a group of experienced, mature Christians who know the power of God - and who also know that what is expressed in confidence will be kept in confidence. The weekend concludes on Sunday at noon after a communion service and blessing for the future.
